Itinerary

Embark on a magical journey to see Alaska as it was meant to be seen – in the winter – when the northern lights and the excitement of the world famous Iditarod are underway. On this adventure of a lifetime led by an Alaskan guide, you'll discover our nation's largest and perhaps most beautiful natural wonder while exploring Fairbanks, Anchorage and Denali National Park with a ride aboard Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train providing unparalleled views of an Alaska winter wonderland!

Day 1 – Welcome to Fairbanks!

Optional transfers from one of our departure points this morning will have you at LAX for a connecting flight to Fairbanks, Alaska. Guests making their own flight arrangements may arrive in Fairbanks at any time today, and still take advantage of the included meet and greet at the airport followed by an included transfer to your Fairbanks hotel. Enjoy the balance of the evening at leisure.

Day 2 – Fairbanks, Northern Lights

Embark on a guided Fairbanks city tour including a visit to the Morris Thompson Cultural Center and the Trans-Alaska Pipeline. This afternoon relax at the hotel or take advantage of optional excursions including dog mushing and an Arctic Circle air adventure. All optional excursions are subject to change and some excursions may not be available. All bookings/payments for optional excursions are made with your local tour director on tour. This evening, travel just outside the city for aurora borealis viewing with an included hot beverage. The northern lights are beautiful dancing waves of light that occur when energized particles from the sun collide with Earth's upper atmosphere. Northern lights are not guaranteed as they are dependent on weather and solar activity. Return to the hotel late tonight. (Breakfast)

Cancellation/Travel Protection

A travel protection policy (which includes cancellation protection and other benefits) is highly recommended and available through a third-party. A travel protection brochure will be provided with your payment receipt and invoice. Regardless of the reason, cancellations, credits and transfers of paid bookings require us to retain an administrative fee (ranging from $50-$500 depending on the date of cancellation) in addition to all non-recoverable fees paid to our tour suppliers on your behalf. Those guests who have purchased travel protection and must cancel for a covered reason, will be reimbursed by the travel protection company the balance of any non-refunded or credited monies (minus the premium itself). Visit www.goodtimestravel.com or see our tour catalog for our full cancellation policy and other terms and conditions.

Tour Pace & Activity Level

Visit our website for further explanation of what each of these designations means to assist you in determining which tour is right for you based on your physical abilities and the pacing you prefer.

Itinerary

Day 3 – Fairbanks to Healy, Denali National Park

This morning travel south to Denali with a stop to visit the town of Nenana, home of the Nenana Ice Classic! Upon arrival in Denali National Park, visit the Murie Science and Learning Center (elevation 3,000') which acts as the Denali visitor center in the wintertime. Enjoy the national park film Heartbeats of Denali, hear from a park ranger and take advantage of an opportunity to go snow shoeing! This evening, a second opportunity to see the aurora borealis. Overnight in Healy. (Breakfast, Boxed Lunch)

Day 4 – Denali to Anchorage Via Alaska Railroad

This morning you'll board the deluxe railcars of the world-famous Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train. Your "Adventure Class" seating offers comfortable, forward-facing seats, large picture windows and Alaskan tour guides. Experience the quiet serenity of Alaska's back country in winter while keeping an eye out for views of Mount Denali, the tallest peak in North America. Begin a five-night stay at a deluxe hotel in Anchorage this evening. (Breakfast)

Day 5 – Anchorage

Embark on a guided Anchorage city tour. Visit the historic downtown district and Lake Hood where float planes take off and land. Visit Earthquake Park to learn about the massive earthquake in 1964. Travel south this afternoon along the scenic Seward Highway and Alaska's spectacular Turnagain Arm framed by the Chugach Mountains and ocean vistas. Visit the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center to see some of Alaska's largest wildlife like moose, bison, elk, deer, caribou, musk ox, fox and birds of prey. Tonight, take part in official Iditarod festivities with an included dinner at the official Musher's Banquet where you'll meet the mushers who will compete in this year's Iditarod. Attendance at the banquet is only guaranteed for guests paid by January 1, 2025. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 6 – Anchorage

This morning travel north to Happy Trails Kennel to meet Martin Buser, four-time Iditarod Champion, who will share his personal stories from the Iditarod trail. Also, an included visit to the Iditarod Headquarters to see a replica Iditarod Trail station first-hand. (Breakfast)

Day 7 – Anchorage, Iditarod Ceremonial Start

The big day has arrived! This morning head to 4th Avenue in downtown Anchorage, providing a great viewing location of the official Ceremonial Start of the Iditarod, known as the "Last Great Race" (weather and snow conditions permitting). Cheer on mushers and dogs from all over the world as they burst through the Iditarod start line, and take part in other Iditarod festivities at leisure. This afternoon, visit the Anchorage Museum – an impressive art, history, ethnography, ecology and science museum in the heart of downtown Anchorage. (Breakfast)

Day 8 – Willow, Iditarod Restart

This morning travel north to the quaint community of Willow, Alaska for the official Restart of the Iditarod Trail Sled Dog Race. Prepare for a bit of a walk to find the perfect spot along the race fence line. Cheer on the mushers and dogs as they take off every two minutes across Willow Lake on their 1,049 mile journey into the Alaska Wilderness for Nome. The Willow Community Center is open and offers a break from the cold with vendors selling food and drinks as well as local crafts. Return to Anchorage this evening. (Breakfast)

Day 9 – Journey Home

An included transfer to the Anchorage International Airport for a return flight to Los Angeles this morning. Those guests making their own flight arrangements can depart Anchorage at any time today (hotel-to-airport transfer included). Upon arrival in Los Angeles, those guests with pre-arranged transfers will be returned to their respective drop-off points. Return home with many fond memories of the incredible scenery and the excitement of the Iditarod and northern lights on this unique winter adventure. (Breakfast)

In the rare event the Iditarod Restart is relocated north beyond Willow due to weather and trail conditions, a full day of activities in Anchorage will be substituted and will include a visit to the Alaska Aviation Museum, an opportunity to meet an Alaskan bush pilot, an included lunch at a locals' favorite and visit to the E. Street Theater to see an interactive movie about the Iditarod Sled Dog Race.

This tour may be different from other tours offered by Good Times Travel due to the cold temperatures, snow and ice underfoot. Guests should be in good health and able to walk reasonable distances over slippery surfaces. Comfortable, waterproof shoes or boots as well as winter clothing are required for this tour.

The land portion of this unique tour is operated by a local tour operator partner of ours that specializes in this region and provides a professional, Alaskan tour director to lead the group upon arrival in Fairbanks. Our group will be joined by guests from other parts of the U.S. A Good Times Travel tour director will accompany our group only with a minimum number of Good Times Travel guests.
