Itinerary

Experience the rugged beauty, seemingly endless fairytale coastlines and timeless charm of Canada's Atlantic coast on an unforgettable journey through Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick. From the iconic red sandstone cliffs of "Anne's Land" and the world-renowned Cabot Trail to the dramatic tides of the Bay of Fundy and picturesque Peggy's Cove, this 8-day itinerary captures the true essence of the Canada's Maritime Provinces. Let the salt air and storied landscapes inspire you as you become immersed in a rich cultural tapestry of Acadian and Gaelic traditions while enjoying world-class seafood and upscale waterfront stays on this quintessential East Coast adventure at the most delightful time of year.

Day 1 – Welcome to Nova Scotia! (Wednesday, July 8)

Optional transfers from our departure points will have us at Los Angeles International Airport this morning for a connecting flight arriving in Halifax, Nova Scotia tonight. Those guests making their own flight arrangements can request the group's flight schedule (subject to change) to coordinate a flight arrival time that would allow them to be included on the complimentary transfer to the hotel. Upon arrival, we'll board a deluxe motorcoach and continue to our downtown waterfront hotel to begin a two-night stay.

Day 2 – Halifax, Peggy's Cove, Lunenburg, Mahone Bay (Thursday, July 9)

Following an included breakfast, we'll be joined by a local guide for a driving tour of Halifax, the cosmopolitan yet historic city. We'll take a leisurely stroll through the Victorian-era Halifax Public Gardens and pay our respects at Fairview Lawn Cemetery, the final resting place for many Titanic passengers. We'll continue south to the rugged shores of Peggy's Cove to admire Peggy's Cove Lighthouse – perhaps the most iconic and photographed lighthouse on the east coast of North America.

Cancellation/Travel Protection

A travel protection policy (which includes cancellation protection and other benefits) is highly recommended and available through a third-party. A travel protection brochure will be provided with your payment receipt and invoice. Regardless of the reason, cancellations, credits and transfers of paid bookings require us to retain an administrative fee (ranging from $100-$600 depending on the date of cancellation) in addition to all non-recoverable fees paid to our tour suppliers on your behalf. Those guests who have purchased travel protection and must cancel for a covered reason, will be reimbursed by the travel protection company the balance of any non-refunded or credited monies (minus the premium itself). Visit www.goodtimestravel.com or see our tour catalog for our full cancellation policy and other terms and conditions.

Tour Pace & Activity Level

Visit our website for further explanation of what each of these designations means to assist you in determining which tour is right for you based on your physical abilities and the pacing you prefer.

Itinerary

We'll pay our respects at the Swiss Air 111 Memorial and travel through Mahone Bay, the charming town known for its iconic "three churches." Enjoy time at leisure for exploration and lunch on your own in the colorful seaside village of Lunenburg, a UNESCO World Heritage site and a masterpiece of British Colonial architecture. We'll return to Halifax and enjoy an included dinner this evening at a locals' favorite. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 3 – Halifax to Cape Breton Island (Friday, July 10)

This morning we'll visit the Halifax Citadel National Historic Site, a star-shaped fortress that has watched over the city since 1856. We'll then travel northeast, traversing the rolling landscapes of central Nova Scotia toward the rugged beauty of Cape Breton Island. Originally known as "Isle Royale," the island's tumultuous colonial history has forged a captivating cultural mosaic of Acadian and Gaelic traditions. Enjoy an included Atlantic lobster dinner (with alternative entrée available) before we begin a two-night stay at a charming resort on the shores of Bras d'Or Lake. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 4 – Cabot Trail, Cape Breton Highlands National Park (Saturday, July 11)

This morning we'll be joined by a local guide for a full-day adventure along the world-famous Cabot Trail – a serpentine highway celebrated as one of the most breathtaking drives on the planet! Carved directly into the mountainsides, this winding route offers exhilarating vistas of Cape Breton's rugged coastline at every turn. We'll hug the eastern shore, catching glimpses of the distant Bird Islands, before pausing at Black Brook Beach to admire its striking red granite cliffs. Our journey then takes us inland across the Highland Plateau, traversing a wild landscape of moose country, bogs, and boreal forests within Cape Breton Highlands National Park. After an included lunch we'll descend past Mackenzie and French Mountains, soaking in panoramic views of Pleasant Bay and the Gulf of St. Lawrence. We return to the resort late this afternoon. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day 5 – Cape Breton Island to Prince Edward Island (Sunday, July 12)

This morning, we explore the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site, home to a fascinating museum that explores the inventor's genius and the summers he spent here after he and his family moved from Scotland. This afternoon, we'll enjoy a boxed lunch during a scenic Northumberland Ferry crossing over the Northumberland Strait to Prince Edward Island. Known affectionately by the locals as "PEI," Canada's smallest province feels like a storybook come to life, characterized by emerald rolling fields, red sandstone cliffs, and historic Victorian farmsteads. This island's vibrant heritage is a tapestry of French-Acadian, Scottish, and Irish roots that still thrive today. We'll continue to Charlottetown, the storied "Birthplace of Canada." We'll enjoy a two-night stay at an upscale waterfront hotel in the heart of this charming, walkable city. (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day 6 – Prince Edward Island (Monday, July 13)

A local guide will join us today and bring the "storybook island" of Lucy Maud Montgomery and her iconic book, Anne of Green Gables to life. At the Anne of Green Gables Museum we'll explore the very farm the author called the "wonder castle" of her childhood. Step inside the rooms meticulously decorated to match her literary descriptions. Our journey continues through "Anne's Land" and Prince Edward Island National Park, where we'll admire a stunning coastline of red sand beaches, wind-sculpted dunes, and pastoral fields. This afternoon we'll visit Green Gables Heritage Place and walk in the footsteps of one of Canada's most celebrated authors. Enjoy the evening at leisure or join an optional excursion to see Anne of Green Gables—The Musical for an additional $80 p.p. (including taxes/fees). A short five-minute walk with your tour director leads you to orchestra-level seats at the Confederation Centre of the Arts for this humorous and touching Canadian classic. (Breakfast)

Day 7 – PEI to Hopewell Rocks, Moncton (Tuesday, July 14)

This morning, we'll traverse the incredible 8-mile-long Confederation Bridge to enter New Brunswick. In Pointe-du-Chêne, we'll board a bi-level boat for a narrated cruise through the serene waters of Shediac Bay. After an included lunch, we'll continue to Hopewell Rocks Provincial Park on the shores of the Bay of Fundy, home to the world's most dramatic tides. We'll experience this incredible natural phenomenon first-hand as we watch what appear to be common islands magically become impressive mushroom-shaped sandstone towers measuring 40 to 70 feet tall once the ocean waters recede over 40 feet! We'll then walk on the ocean floor in the shadows of the majestic flower-pot rocks. Late this afternoon we'll arrive at our upscale hotel in downtown Moncton. Enjoy an included dinner at a locals' favorite this evening. (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Day 8 – Journey Home (Wednesday, July 15)

This morning we'll travel from Moncton to the Halifax International Airport for a connecting flight arriving in Los Angeles this evening. Those guests making their own flight arrangements can request the group's flight schedule (subject to change) to coordinate a flight departure time that would allow them to be included on the complimentary transfer to the airport. Back in Los Angeles, those guests with pre-arranged transfers will be returned to their respective drop-offs. (Breakfast)
