Itinerary

Embark on an unforgettable journey through the heart of the American West, where the rugged peaks of Grand Teton National Park and the geothermal wonders of Yellowstone await. From the vibrant streets of Bozeman and Jackson's charming Town Square to a traditional horse-drawn wagon cookout and the eruption of Old Faithful, this tour offers a master class in natural beauty and Western heritage. Whether you're marveling at the thundering falls of the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, meeting rescued giants at the Montana Grizzly Encounter, drifting along the Snake River under the watchful gaze of the Teton Range or enjoying a two-night stay at the legendary Old Faithful Inn, every moment of this new 7-day tour is designed to immerse you in the majestic splendor of these iconic landscapes.

Day 1 – Welcome to Montana! (Wednesday, September 23)

Optional transfers from our departure points will have us at the Los Angeles International Airport this morning for a scheduled nonstop flight arriving in Bozeman, Montana this afternoon. Those guests making their own flight arrangements can request the group's flight schedule (subject to change) to coordinate a flight arrival time that would allow them to be included on the complimentary transfer to the hotel. Situated in the Gallatin Valley, Bozeman has transformed from a 19th century pioneer stop into a vibrant hub for outdoor adventure and craft brewing. It is also famously the fictional home of the Dutton Ranch from the series Yellowstone. Upon arrival, we'll settle in for a two-night stay, with the evening free to enjoy dinner on your own at one of the nearby restaurants.

Day 2 – Bozeman (Thursday, September 24)

After an included breakfast, we'll head to Alpacas of Montana for a unique, hands-on adventure.

Cancellation/Travel Protection

A travel protection policy (which includes cancellation protection and other benefits) is highly recommended and available through a third-party. A travel protection brochure will be provided with your payment receipt and invoice. Regardless of the reason, cancellations, credits and transfers of paid bookings require us to retain an administrative fee (ranging from $100-$600 depending on the date of cancellation) in addition to all non-recoverable fees paid to our tour suppliers on your behalf. Those guests who have purchased travel protection and must cancel for a covered reason, will be reimbursed by the travel protection company the balance of any non-refunded or credited monies (minus the premium itself). Visit www.goodtimestravel.com or see our tour catalog for our full cancellation policy and other terms and conditions.

Tour Pace & Activity Level

The walking can be strenuous due to the high elevations. Travelers should be in good health and able to walk reasonable distances. National park lodge rooms do not have air conditioning, internet, television or radio.

Itinerary

At this charming alpaca farm, we'll meet a vibrant array of alpacas while learning about these unique camelids' 6,000-year history with humans and the fascinating differences between alpacas and llamas. Midday is yours to explore Bozeman's Main Street Historic District, a beautifully preserved slice of the American West and home to over 100 boutiques, art galleries, and cafés for lunch on your own. This afternoon we'll visit Museum of the Rockies, a world-class natural history museum located on the campus of Montana State University. The museum features one of the largest collections of North American dinosaur fossils including a massive, nearly complete Tyrannosaurus rex skeleton and a remarkably preserved Allosaurus specimen. Our visit includes a show in the Taylor Planetarium, a 40-foot domed theatre with 110 reclining seats and immersive experiences that provide a new perspective to astronomy, planetary exploration and other exciting topics. Enjoy an included dinner at a locals' favorite this evening. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 3 – Bozeman to Yellowstone National Park (Friday, September 25)

This morning we'll visit Montana Grizzly Encounter, providing the unique opportunity to observe rescued grizzly bears in a spacious, natural habitat designed to mimic their wild environment. A knowledgeable staff member will be present in the viewing area to share insights into their rescue stories and the vital needs of these majestic animals. This afternoon we'll enter Yellowstone National Park, our nation's oldest national park! We'll stop to admire the Roosevelt Arch, the massive 52-foot structure built from local columnar basalt and designed to provide a sense of "visual fanfare" for travelers arriving by train in the early 1900s. Enjoy time at leisure to explore the ethereal Mammoth Hot Springs, where boardwalks lead you through steaming travertine terraces that look like a "living, inside-out cave." Late this afternoon we'll arrive at the Old Faithful Inn, where we'll enjoy a two-night stay adjacent to the world-famous Old Faithful Geyser. This National Historic Landmark features a towering lobby, massive stone fireplace and a variety of dining options. (Breakfast)

Day 4 – Yellowstone National Park (Saturday, September 26)

This morning we'll join a local guide for a full-day immersion into a land of mystery and geological wonder. Home to more hydrothermal features than the rest of the planet combined, Yellowstone reveals its power through steaming geysers, bubbling mud pots, and prismatic hot springs. We'll traverse the scenic Hayden Valley, keeping a watchful eye for roaming bison and elk, before reaching the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone. Here, we'll stand in awe of both the Upper and Lower Falls as they plunge into the canyon's golden depths. Our journey continues to the vibrant Fountain Paint Pot and the crystal-clear expanse of Yellowstone Lake. A highlight of the day is a visit to Midway Geyser Basin, where we'll marvel at the surreal, vivid rings of Grand Prismatic Spring. We'll enjoy an included boxed lunch amidst the park's natural beauty. Maximum elevation: 8,000' (Breakfast, Lunch)

Day 5 – Grand Teton National Park (Sunday, September 27)

This morning we'll journey south into Grand Teton National Park, where the youngest and most rugged peaks in America pierce the clouds in majestic splendor. Enjoy time at leisure for lunch on your own at the historic Jackson Lake Lodge, framed by floor-to-ceiling views of the Teton Range. This afternoon we'll take to the water for a gentle Snake River float trip. As we drift through the heart of Grand Teton National Park, a knowledgeable river guide will help spot moose, eagles, and other wildlife along the banks. Our day concludes in the historic and vibrant town of Jackson, Wyoming where we'll begin a two-night stay at an upscale hotel within walking distance of Jackson's charming Town Square. (Breakfast)

Day 6 – Grand Teton National Park (Monday, September 28)

This morning, we'll join a local guide for an in-depth exploration of Grand Teton National Park. We'll step back in time at the Mormon Row Historic District and stop at a curated selection of premier vistas, including Snake River Overlook and Oxbow Bend, ensuring we capture the most breathtaking views within the national park. This evening we'll experience a true taste of the Old West at Bar T 5 Covered Wagon Cookout & Show. After traveling for two miles in a horse-drawn covered wagon into scenic Cache Creek Canyon, we'll enjoy a hearty Dutch oven dinner followed by western music, humor and harmony. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 7 – Journey Home (Tuesday, September 29)

This morning we'll visit the National Museum of Wildlife Art, the premier museum in the U.S. dedicated to the artistry of the natural world. Enjoy time at leisure wandering through 14 distinctive galleries that house a diverse collection ranging from early tribal artifacts to contemporary masterpieces by Andy Warhol, Georgia O'Keeffe, John James Audubon, and Carl Rungius. This afternoon we'll arrive at the Jackson Hole Airport for our scheduled nonstop flight to Los Angeles. Those guests making their own flight arrangements can request the group's flight schedule to coordinate a flight departure time that would allow them to be included on the complimentary transfer to the airport. Back in Los Angeles, those guests with pre-arranged transfers will be returned to their respective destinations. (Breakfast)
