Itinerary

Step into the living story of America on this new, seven-day journey through the historic heart of Virginia and our nation's capital, at a delightful time of year when cherry blossoms are possible. While enjoying a three-night stay at an all-suite hotel in charming Alexandria, discover iconic D.C. monuments, world-class Smithsonian museums, and hallowed Arlington National Cemetery before following in the footsteps of our Founding Fathers at George Washington's Mount Vernon, Washington's boyhood home in Fredericksburg and Patrick Henry's historic pulpit in Richmond. Then we'll settle in for a three-night stay in Williamsburg while exploring Colonial Williamsburg, Jamestown Settlement, and Yorktown. This thoughtfully curated tour delivers an unforgettable immersion into the ideals and milestones that forged the United States.

Day 1 – Welcome to Alexandria, Virginia! (Friday, April 9)

Optional transfers from our departure points will have us at LAX this morning for a scheduled nonstop flight to Washington National Airport (DCA), arriving late this afternoon. Guests making independent flight arrangements may request the group flight schedule (subject to change) to align arrivals and take advantage of the complimentary transfer to the hotel. Upon arrival, we'll board a deluxe motorcoach for the short drive to Alexandria, Virginia—a historic riverside city known for its charming, small-town feel. We'll settle into an upscale, all-suite hotel for a three-night stay, complete with a complimentary nightly "happy hour" in the lobby, diverse dining within walking distance, and a convenient free trolley into the heart of Old Town Alexandria.

Day 2 – Washington, D.C. (Saturday, April 10)

Following an included made-to-order breakfast at the hotel, we'll be joined by a local guide and drive

Cancellation/Travel Protection

A travel protection policy (which includes cancellation protection and other benefits) is highly recommended and available through a third-party. A travel protection brochure will be provided with your payment receipt and invoice. Regardless of the reason, cancellations, credits and transfers of paid bookings require us to retain an administrative fee (ranging from $100-$600 depending on the date of cancellation) in addition to all non-recoverable fees paid to our tour suppliers on your behalf. Those guests who have purchased travel protection and must cancel for a covered reason, will be reimbursed by the travel protection company the balance of any non-refunded or credited monies (minus the premium itself). Visit www.goodtimestravel.com or see our tour catalog for our full cancellation policy and other terms and conditions.

Itinerary

past the Pentagon en route to the National Mall. Here, we'll visit a collection of profound, deeply moving tributes: the Lincoln Memorial, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial, the Korean War Veterans Memorial, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial, and the Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial. Along the picturesque Tidal Basin, we'll take in sweeping views of the city from the stately Thomas Jefferson Memorial. Following an exterior view of the White House, we'll delve into presidential history at the White House Visitor Center, home to interactive exhibits and roughly 100 authentic artifacts. We'll pay tribute to the 16 million Americans who served—and the more than 400,000 who gave their lives—at the National World War II Memorial, before visiting the stirring U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial (Iwo Jima). Later, we'll explore historic Old Town Alexandria, a bustling seaport in the nation's early days. Enjoy an included dinner at a locals' favorite. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 3 – Washington, D.C. (Sunday, April 11)

This morning, we'll visit Arlington National Cemetery, America's revered sanctuary of valor and sacrifice. A narrated tram tour takes us to President John F. Kennedy's grave site and the solemn Changing of the Guard ceremony at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Spend the afternoon exploring your choice of world-class, admission-free Smithsonian institutions. See the legendary Hope Diamond at the National Museum of Natural History, view the historic Star-Spangled Banner flag at the National Museum of American History, or marvel at the Wright brothers' flyer and Apollo 11 command module inside the newly renovated National Air & Space Museum. Enjoy the balance of the evening at leisure. (Breakfast)

Day 4 – Mount Vernon, Richmond, Williamsburg (Monday, April 12)

This morning, we'll visit George Washington's Mount Vernon, the southern plantation situated on a shaded, rolling slope overlooking the Potomac River. Tour the stately mansion, stroll through 50 acres of cultivated grounds and gardens containing George and Martha Washington's final resting place, and view insightful exhibits detailing the life and legacy of the "Father of Our Country." This afternoon, we'll travel south to Virginia's capital, Richmond, to visit Historic St. John's Church where Patrick Henry delivered his impassioned "Give me liberty, or give me death!" speech. This evening we'll settle into the Williamsburg Lodge, Autograph Collection for a three-night stay. Located in the historic district, this acclaimed hotel pairs upscale modern comfort with rustic-chic, colonial-inspired design. Enjoy the balance of the evening at leisure. (Breakfast)

Day 5 – Williamsburg (Tuesday, April 13)

This morning, we'll immerse ourselves in Colonial Williamsburg with an all-access pass granting entry to 88 meticulously restored 18th century sites. Highlights include the regal Governor's Palace; the Colonial Capitol, where revolutionary ideals were forged into law; historic Bruton Parish Episcopal Church; the George Wythe House, once Washington's headquarters; and Raleigh Tavern, a spirited meeting place where independence was vigorously debated. Steps from our hotel, the 173-acre historic district comes alive as skilled artisans and period interpreters invite you into the daily trades, politics, and conversations of early America. Following dinner on your own, join the candlelit Haunted Williamsburg Ghost Tour, an exclusive one-hour walk that offers rare nighttime access inside historic buildings to share authentic colonial legends and chilling modern encounters. Please note that some historic interiors are not ADA-accessible; the tour operates rain or shine, barring severe weather. (Breakfast)

Day 6 – Jamestown, Yorktown (Wednesday, April 14)

This morning, we'll take a short drive to Jamestown Settlement, which commemorates the first permanent English colony in the New World. Step aboard full-scale replicas of the three 1607 ships to discover the harsh voyage endured by early settlers, and explore the reconstructed fort brought vividly to life by costumed historical interpreters. This afternoon, we continue to Yorktown to tour the Yorktown Battlefield, site of the Revolutionary War's decisive final clash. Through compelling films and visitor center exhibits, trace the allied American and French siege that led to General Cornwallis's surrender and secured American independence. This afternoon we'll visit the American Revolution Museum, featuring dynamic, interactive galleries that chronicle America's transformation from fragile colonies to a newly constitutional republic. Tonight, we'll gather for an included tavern dinner steeped in authentic 18th century hospitality. (Breakfast, Dinner)

Day 7 – Fredericksburg, Journey Home (Thursday, April 15)

This morning, we head north to Fredericksburg to tour Kenmore, the elegant Georgian estate of George Washington's only sister, Betty, and her patriot husband, Colonel Fielding Lewis. After time at leisure in Historic Downtown Fredickersburg, we'll enjoy a guided tour of George Washington's Ferry Farm, his boyhood home on the banks of the Rappahannock River. We'll continue north to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) for our scheduled nonstop flight, arriving in LAX tonight. Guests booking independent flights can request the group flight schedule (subject to change) to coordinate similar departure times. Upon arrival at LAX, guests with pre-arranged transfers will be returned to their designated drop-off locations. (Breakfast)
